INSTRUCTIONAL GUIDE
ELD 6A-English Language Development 6A

Course ID# 170321

This is the first semester of a four-semester course designed to accelerate English Language Development through intensive instruction in advanced literacy skills for EL students who are currently reading at a 3rd grade level or higher. Emphasis will be on critical reading skills (including ability to respond appropriately to a variety of genres using effective tone, language and argumentation/rhetoric), expository writing skills and academic vocabulary acquisition.

This course will prepare students to meet reclassification by introducing grade level English Language Arts standards while building critical analytical skills and content knowledge for success in the mainstream academic environment. To successfully complete this course, students will need to devote an estimated 10 hours per week to their assignments.
